Homecoming

Everything leading to the crowning of the king and queen at Friday night's halftime and a formal Saturday night dance is an exciting, joyful night for many high school students.

Preparations for Homecoming actually begin a full year ahead of the actual event. St. Clair Student Council members usually meet after a Homecoming, to discuss what went smoothly and what needs to be done to make the next year's festivities better. Spirit Week is tentatively planned, as well as pep assemblies, Friday's Parade through town, the annual bon-fire, voting for representatives, the floats, the half-time shows, and of course, the Homecoming dance.

Why plan so far in advance? "Because there are so many things to deal with, and because we want Homecoming to be the best it can be, we try to get done as much as possible before the next Fall. Another reason is that all of our thoughts on what will and what went wrong are fresh in our minds."

said one council member.

Plans for class floats get underway long before the actual weekend celebration. First a choice must be made as to what the float will look like. Next, construction gets underway. Float parties are a great way to get together with friends and have something to do together.

Most students start planning for the dance a month ahead. So, after the stresses are gone, have a great time!

Leading the Pack

The purpose of student council is to get students involved in school. Student council members are leaders. They are voted into office to represent their class.

If a student has an idea, a question, or a comment dealing with school, he can go to his representative and that member will bring the information to the attention of the whole council.

Council members work with staff and administrators, as well as members of the community, in an effort to make a difference. Student involvement is the first step to being taken seriously and council members see this as an opportunity to strengthen the image of the average teenager.

Still in transition, student council promises to play an important part in student life at St. Clair High.

BLOOD Drive helpers: Jody Shovan, Kim Madaj, Stephanie Petrone, Jeff Cook, and Jason Alban.

Making a Difference

"Did you see how the class float turned out?"

"Yes! I'd like to know who's stupid idea that was!"

We've all heard this kind of talk before. The average person is quick to criticize, but seldom gets involved in trying to change what's wrong.

As future adults, we need to recognize this flaw in ourselves, so that we can make a difference. Class officers are people who have chosen to take that step.

Does a person have to be a class officer to be involved? Not at all. Many students act as representatives of their class and are present at class council meetings ready to voice opinions and give suggestions. They are also there to help with major class projects.

Never feel like you can't make a difference. You can.

Students Gain Acting Experience

It's really tough to pick out plays for high school production. As a director, Miss Sredich wanted to challenge students and allow as many as possible to participate. She chose two plays, "Ghost Stories" and "I'll Bring You Flowers" because she thought it would involve more of the student body.

"Sometimes plays are selected to train actors, and to challenge other actors. That's why I selected two plays. I wanted to work with unexperienced actors so that I could have a 'following' for next year."

Miss Sredich wishes more students would get involved in school plays. "Drama is more than acting! It's painting, and learning to present ideas and art for others to enjoy!"

National Honor Society

The kids who are a part of this group work hard at leadership roles, earning scholarships, and providing services for people. They are kids who have a good character and have 3.3 or better grade point average.

The National Honor Society does many different things. They put on dances to raise money for the honor students' collars on graduation day. They also have a Teacher Appreciation Tea. Here they serve the teachers punch and cookies on Teacher Appreciation Day. This year they took part in B.A.D. — Bowling Against Muscular dystrophy. The Honor Society picked bowling because they thought it would be the most fun for everyone involved. They raised $1,160.00.

The National Honor Society is gathering all the valedictorians and salutatorians, since the beginning of school, and honoring them on our wall of fame.

Varsity Club

Sitting in English writing furiously, I didn't even notice the other students gathering — until it hit me! The smell, the awful smell of garlic.

What in the . . . my best friend was wearing it around her neck, along with a backwards shirt, a wig, and big clodhopper boots.

"Why?" I asked.

She proceeded to tell me it was part of her initiation into the Varsity Club. "Would you like to join?" She asked. Of course I knew nothing about it so I asked her what they did.

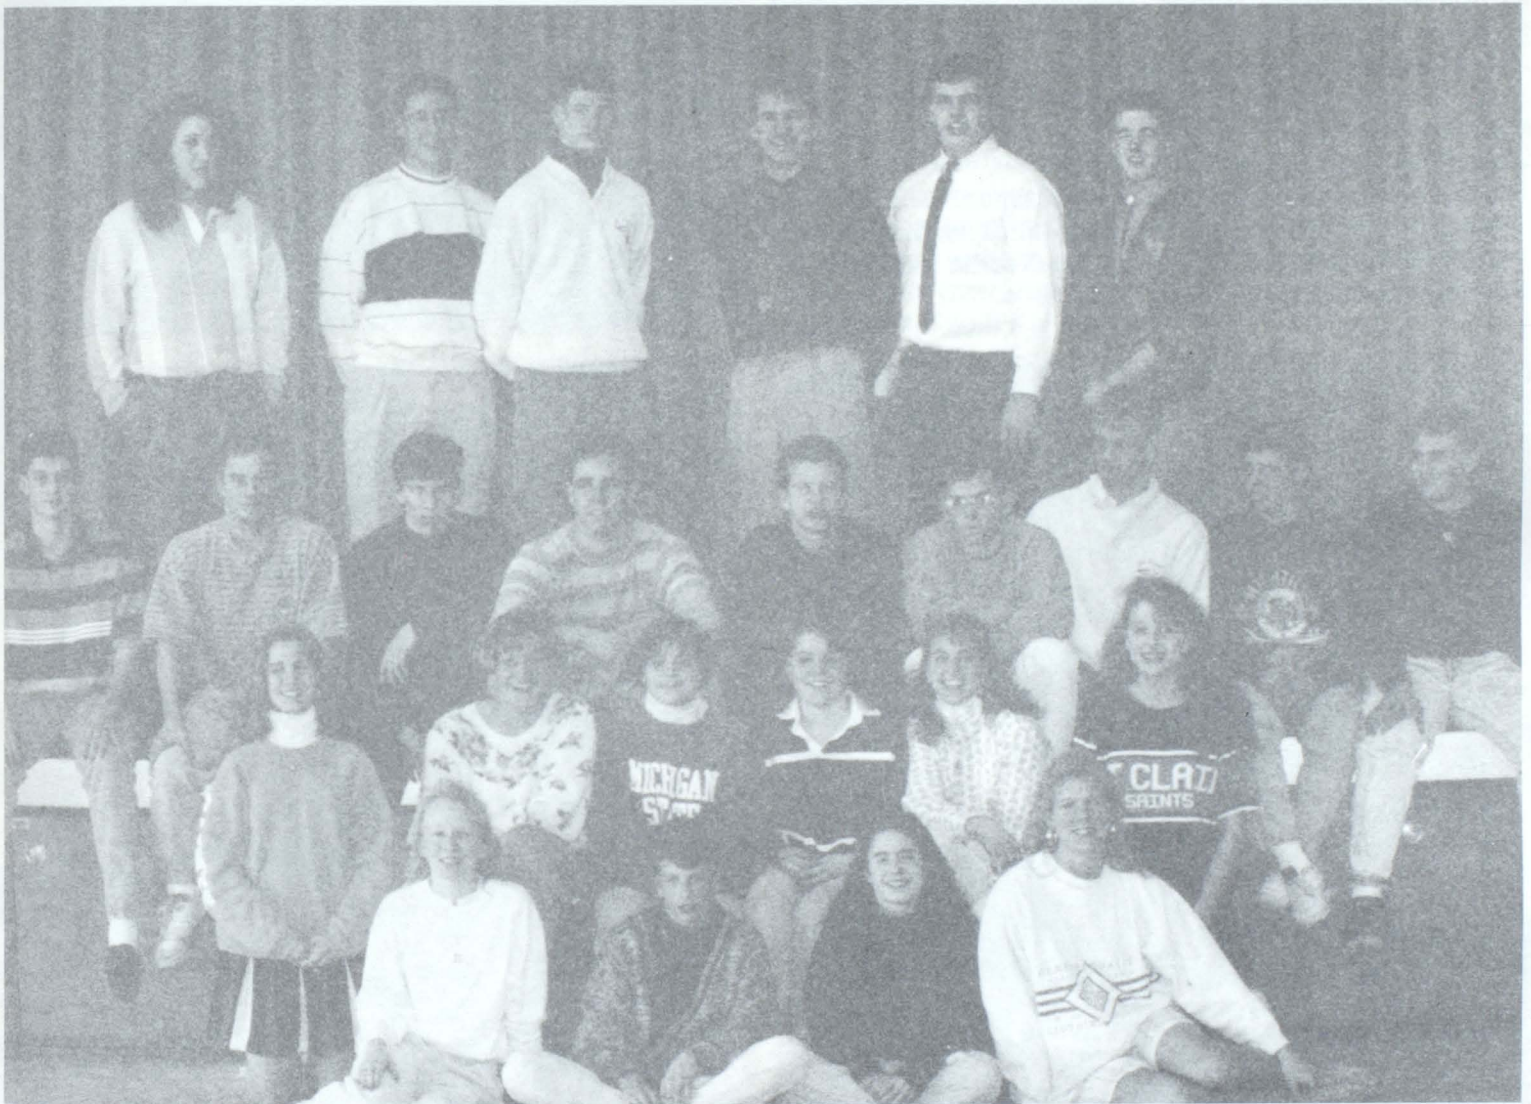

"Well," she said, "we participate in fund raises and school activities. For example, in spring of 1990 we played donkey ball (basketball riding on donkey's backs)."

"Sounds great! Can anyone join?"

"Well, there is one stipulation — you must have a varsity letter of some kind and decent grades and then you're welcome to join."

Don't be shy because as Varsity Club member Jenny Liva says, "I love it! It is fun and exciting!"

Exchange Students

Every year St. Clair is proud to host students from other countries during the school year. This is possible, thanks to two very special organizations.

Youth for Understanding International Exchange is a program for high school students between the ages of 15 and 18. YFU offers a choice of four programs: summer, semester, year, and summer sports. This is available in 25 different countries around the world. For all the programs, the students live with a carefully selected host family.

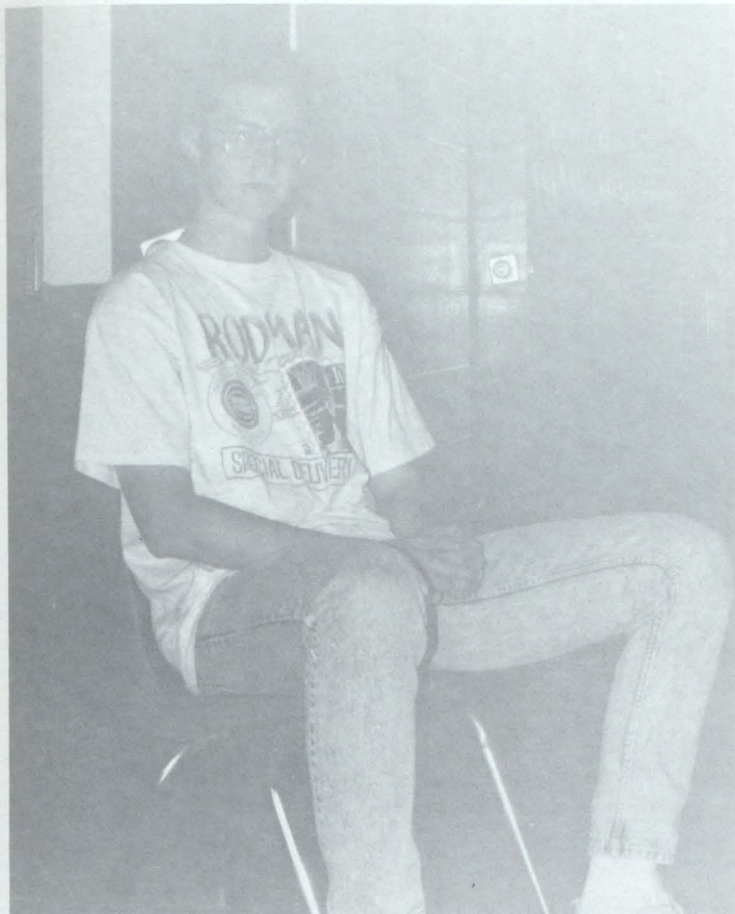

The Rotary Exchange program is different in a couple ways. The first is that they help you pay for your expenses. The second is that a student switches host families every three months.

Antoine Bartschi is from Trisbourg, Switzerland. Switzerland may be where he lives, but Greece is the place to be according to him, because of the cloudless skies, sea, and hot sun. Antoine plans to come back to the U.S. after graduating. He wants to see the rest of America, especially the Colorado Mountains.

Tsuyoshi Suzuki is from Tokyo, Japan. Coming from Tokyo to St. Clair is a big change in life style, but Tsuyoshi still thinks it's a nice little town. His favorite food is Sushi, mainly because it's famous here.

Christian Domm is from Badhersfeld, Germany. He believes he will come back to the U.S. because we have the subjects he likes to study. Plus, he thinks America is very fun. But he thinks St. Clair is different because it's quiet and does not have any crime.

Miikka Taponen is from Hyeunkaa, Finland. Miikka will be returning home in July where he will finish high school and join the army in his country (joining the armed forces is an obligation.) His favorite food is pizza, but prefers food more spicy than the average American cuisine.

Jan Eberle says, "I would rather be in Colombia right now because I miss friends." He has no future plans to come back to the United States even though he thinks the U.S. is a good country and supports all of our war efforts.

Momoe Seki is from Japan, too. She lives with the Gorecki family and says, "I like it very much in St. Clair. It has both stores and nature!" She said she would like to bring her friends back here to show them where she lived.

This year, Cindy Morgan has been accpeted by Youth For Understanding as an international exchange student. She will be staying with a family in Australia for the 1991 Summer program. Cindy is looking forward to experiencing new culture, meeting new people, learning new things, and traveling. She also states, "I've always wanted to go there, so it's a dream fulfilled."

Tuning Up

The band's hard work paid off this year as St. Clair hosted the M.S.B.O.A. District 16 Marching Festival. The band was awarded a Division II ranking for their marching performance and their field show "The Heart of Rock-n-Roll."

In addition to performing at the Festival, the band performed in the Memorial Day Parade, the Homecoming Parade, the Marine City Christmas Parade, and at all home Varsity Football games.

Once the weather began to get cold, the band moved indoors. And during the winter months, they hosted the M.S.B.O.A. District 16 Concert Festival. Here they were awarded a Division II ranking in competition. They also performed a Christmas concert and a concert with the Vocal Music Department.

"Although band takes a lot of work and dedication, we have a lot of fun together. It's not all fun and games, but we have our share of good times," commented Andrea Lozon.

Room At The Top

This year the musical group will be losing eight of their members due to graduation. The departure of these Seniors leaves advancement opportunities for other members. Junior Meredith Wilber is one of the classmen that was moved up to the Varsity vocal group. She says that she is looking forward to the change and expects it to be a lot of fun. Freshman Chris Collison will also be moving up, as a much needed base.

As for the "Singing Sensations", they have lost people too. Senior Kendra Basnaw says, "After I leave, they'll have to find someone else to take charge." The choir will gain more freshmen members, which is always a benefit.

After all is said and done; look back on the laughter, the dinners at Murphy's Inn, the water fights at the car wash, the hair dressing for Valentine's Day . . . and finally don't forget the applause.

What is Students for Environmental Awareness?

We are a coalition of students who care deeply about our environment and its future. We know that maintaining environmental quality and protecting natural resources, through recycling, is necessary to integrate into society, it is a priority. REDUCE, REUSE, RECYCLE.

We know we cannot just write-off pollution as an inevitable by-product of economic growth. We are seeing to our nation's safety. ONCE IS NOT ENOUGH.

We believe in people and animals. We know that we depend upon mutual support, yet, everyday animals are abused, and destroyed.

Animals are used for testing our everyday products. Animals are killed for fur, skins, and ornaments; for sport and entertainment.

Animals are losing the fight for space. We realize that extinct is forever, and that "The question is not, can they reason? Nor, can they talk? But, can they suffer?"

Animals and the earth cannot speak, but we can! Our organization faces a challenge, a challenge that remains as critical as the environmental problems themselves. Our group wants others to recognize that the methods and scope of problem solving must change to meet the challenge. We must have some growth in order to preserve and protect the environment. We stand as a tool, through which, a message is delivered. Society must recognize, that the quality of life of future generations depends on the investment made by the current generation. Our investment is NOW.

Forensics . . .

It's more than just another after school club. It's an activity that gives you the opportunity to be creative. There are several divisions in which a student may compete. Each division has its strong points for the individual.

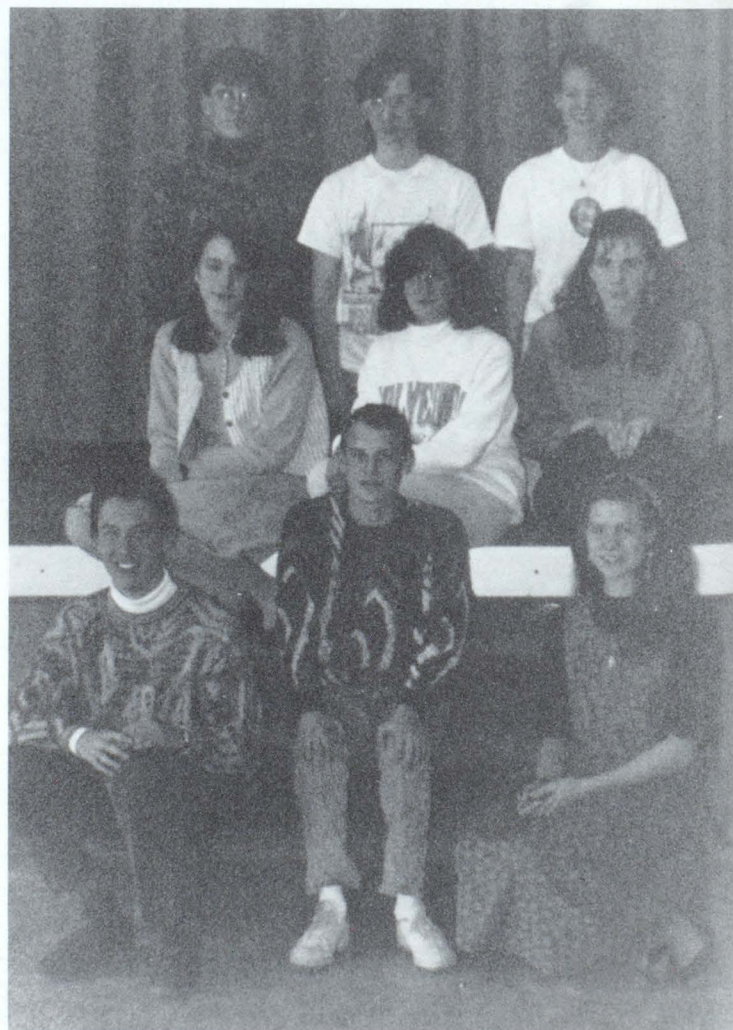

Forensics' first time participant, Erin Wingate, chose to compete in the drama category. The reason? "I enjoy it because I can choose almost anything to act out . . . drama, comedy, satire and etc. I like to act."

Another interesting category is the extemp category. You're given a topic statement and are expected to give an opinionated speech on your topic. Senior Tim Burns was the only brave soul to compete in this category from St. Clair.

If you don't like to work alone, you can work in pairs in the duo category. Sandy Rau and Nate Hurley participated in this. They both agreed that "It's nice being able to work with someone, yet it's difficult having to count on the other person." This area is tough, for you can not face your partner during your performance.

So in closing, Forensics is a group activity that has a lot of possibilities for everyone! Join the fun!

Whiz Kids

The loudness of a sound is measured by the decibel system. The faintest sound the human ear can hear measures 0 decibels. If a sound is 10 times louder than the faintest sound, then it measures 20 decibels. A sound 10,000 times louder measures 40 decibels. What will be the decibel measures of sounds 5,000 times, 10,000,000 times, 5 times, and 2 times the faintest sound?

If you enjoy solving problems like the one above and have a knack for working with computers, the computer club may be the one for you. The computer club is a group of students who go once a month to compete in solving mathematical problems through computer applications. At these competitions, clubs from 23 high schools are given four problems and two hours to solve them. The clubs place in rank by the time it takes to solve problems and the accuracy and makeup of their programs. The contests are purely for fun and no prizes or awards are given.

Using Your Business Skills

Business Professionals of America has become a more popular, more organized, and a more recognized club. Every year BPOA expands. Its number of members seems to increase, and probably through word of mouth. What BPOA does is help you develop your business skills by using them in competition.

The 1990-1991 season was a very good year for them. They had 23 people placing at Regionals, and ending with 5 people qualified for Nationals; but only 2 of the 5 went to Orlando, Florida for competition.

Every year BPOA puts on a fashion show to help pay for the State's trip to the Renaissance Center. The fashion show itself is great and there's always a good turnout. This year's theme was "Made in the U.S.A."

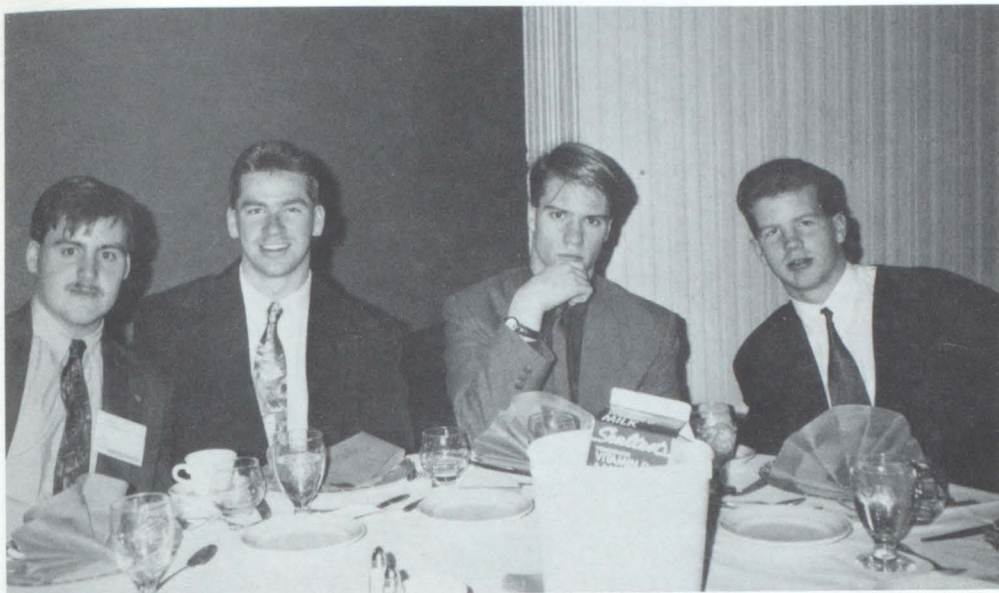

The advisors, Mrs. Derrow and Mr. Tharrett, are very helpful in helping you choose your events and giving you information on how the tests are going to be for those events. This year there was extra help from Mrs. Weber. She put our parliamentary team first at regionals and fourth at States. She was very helpful and supportive to all members. Hopefully she will continue helping the club.

Brighton Beach Memoirs

The 1991 spring play, "Brighton Beach Memoirs", opened April 19. The play was a comedy about a young boy going through puberty. This part was played by Freshman Matt Dunaj. Matt says he was very excited and enjoyed working as the role of Eugene.

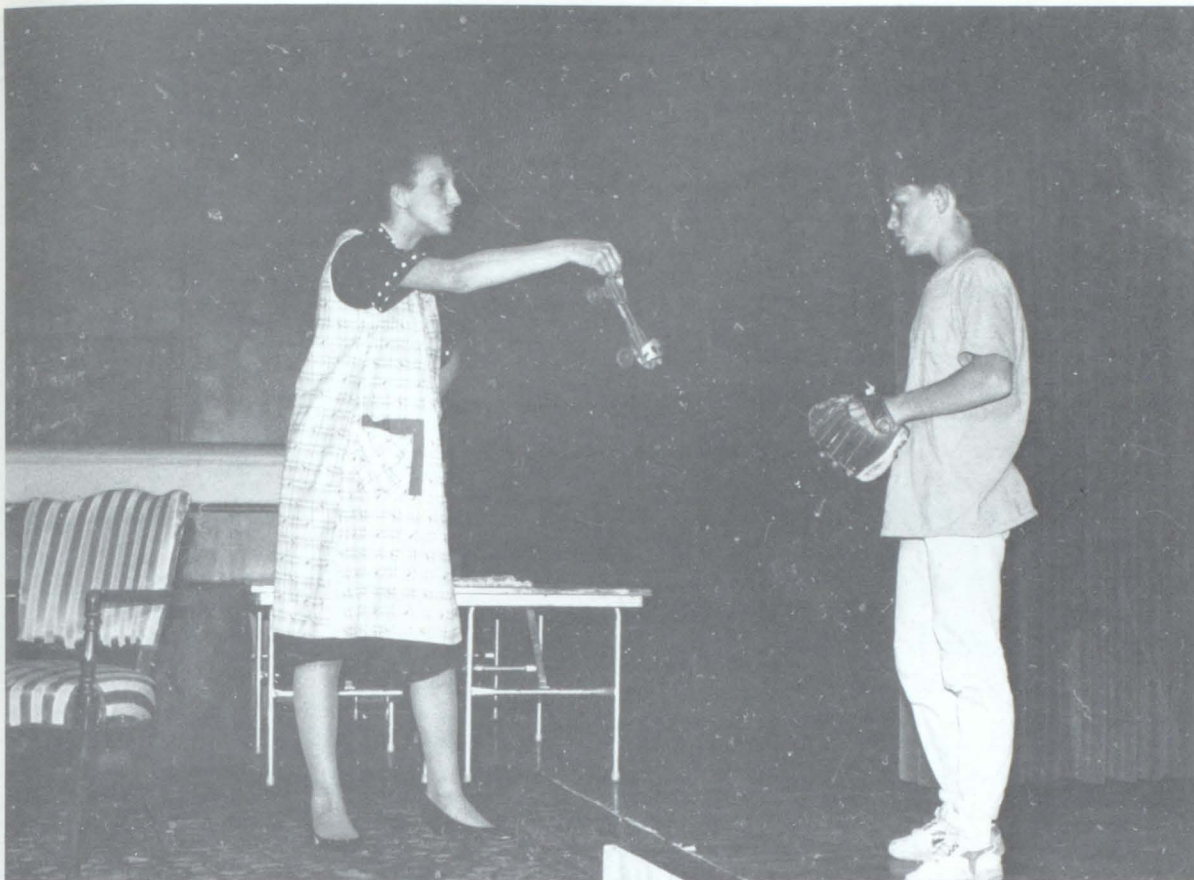

Senior Zaneta Augustson said she had lots of fun working with the cast and if she had the chance, she would do it again. Student director Stan Pyryt did a nice job helping the cast and putting props together. As for the rest of the cast, Emily Bronzie, Steve Shaw, Chris Bloomfield, and Nate Hurley, they all had lots of fun too and they enjoyed working with Miss Sredich. They all did a great job. The play was a wonderful success!

Fall Delivery

You've got a headache "this big" and its got yearbook written all over it.

You can not believe how much work went into this yearbook. With all the pictures we had to take and crop; stories we had to write and rewrite and rewrite again; and all of the deadlines we had to meet. It was a pain.

It was fun though. We were let out of class to interview people and to take pictures. We were also allowed to leave school grounds to sell ads to companies.

Most of our stress was lightened by the new fall deadline. Last spring the class of '91 voted for making the yearbook a true yearbook by including this year's spring sports, commencement, the prom, and even the senior all-nite party.

This is best for the students and the class because it gives the yearbook staff more time to create a yearbook of top quality.

We have a long way to go to make our yearbook everything we want it to be. It's difficult to put out a book with new students with no experience every year. Our new fall deadline makes it easier.

What It Takes

Ah yes, the wonderful world of dating. Have you ever stopped to wonder why it works for some and not others? Just what does it take to make a relationship work? Is there a magical formula for success?

After interviewing a handful of couples one thing was made clear: Communication and Honesty is an important part of a successful relationship. Senior Melissa Minor says of her relationship with Sophomore Jeff Harwood, "We're honest, we communicate with each other, and we care about each other's feelings."

Another important factor in a relationship is appreciation. Seniors Mike Todaro and Jenny Collins tell us, "We'd have to say, what keeps us together is that we really love each other. In the past four years, we've had lots of fun together and know what it's like to be without one another."

Mike Todaro and Jenny Collins smiling happily. JEFF Harwood and Melissa Minor bask in the warmth of sunshine and affection.

The most common factor in most of the relationships we came into contact with was the ability to have fun. The most successful relationships are the ones where both people involved feel comfortable and relaxed around the person they're with. Jennifer Acton says of her feelings toward Jason Shafer, "He makes me laugh. I like the way he winks. We have a lot of fun together. I couldn't picture myself with anyone else." Shannon Harris and Jeremy Fletcher told us, "Our relationship works because we're able to have fun with each other and just relax together without feeling tensed or uncomfortable. We can be ourselves around each other."

Being yourself is an important part of all relationships, whether platonic or romantic. Reliable friendships depend on being yourself and sometimes a lot of romantic relationships are started with reliable friendships. Grant Achatz and Cindy Morgan said, "Our relationship is really special because we began as friends and after two years we realized how much we really liked each other. Now we're best friends and boyfriend and girlfriend. We didn't rush into anything and we really know each other well. It's great!"

Not rushing is important; so if you're not involved with someone right now — don't worry about it! There's plenty of time! Erik Benson and Rhonda Burgess tell us, "We enjoy every minute together. We can't be apart for a long time." Just remember when you do get involved in a relationship it takes a lot to make it work. It takes honesty, friendship, and being yourself. Just like Josh Mehlberg told us, "It takes sense of humor and a lot of tolerance."

Also remember to have fun! Taking things too seriously can lead to extra stress — possibly leading to break-ups. And if things don't work out, the best thing to do is remember the good times, cherish the memories, and try to walk away with a smile. Then once again, remember that being a "free agent" can be a ton of fun too!

America at War

Before the war began with Iraq, President Bush and the Pentagon warned Americans that troop needs would be met by the all-volunteer U.S. Forces and the call up of reserves.

Israel feared an attack from Iraq. We, America, didn't want Israel to enter the war.

On January 21, President Bush said that Iraq's "brutal treatment" of POW fliers will not alter allied war tactics. He said, "America is angry, everybody's upset."

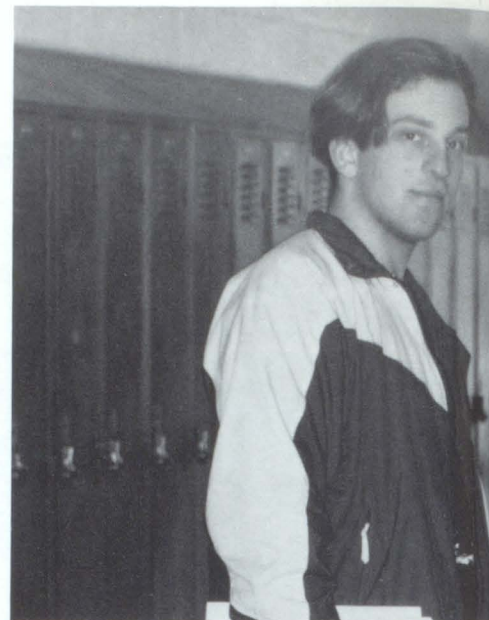

The ground war started when Iraqi tanks were spotted moving into Saudi Arabia. In the two week old war the Marines were the first American ground forces to die in the battle.

The coalition gave Saddam Hussein until noon of February 30, to do what he must do to begin his immediate and unconditional withdrawal from Kuwait.

"As commander in Chief, I can report to you: our armed forces fought with honor and valor. As president, I can report to the nation: Aggression is defeated." "The war is over."

This is the final quote about the war from our President.

Varsity Softball

The Varsity Softball team has many different strategies to strengthen team work. Their main strategy is having each of the four captains, Wendy Carrier, Debbie Tackaberry, Jenny Liva, and Becky Hayes, in charge of several members of their team. If one of the team members does something wrong, the captain in charge handles the problem.

The four captains also have the responsibility of calling to make sure people are home by curfew.

Wendy Carrier explains, "All of this makes us a lot closer, better friends, and an awesome team!" Jen Liva says, "In the beginning of the season everyone was focused on polishing up their own skills. But now that we've polished up our individual skills, we are putting them together and becoming a team. They say we are the 7th place Lady Saints, well, I don't think so!"

Developing Teamwork

High School can be a scary place, especially for freshmen. Not only are you in a new environment surrounded by strangers, you are expected to carry a heavier academic load and also participate in extra curricular activities.

When asked why he chose to join the freshmen football team, Jeff LaDuke said he joined "to develop myself for future high school football years to come. I feel that it made me much stronger and more disciplined. I played mainly for enjoyment, the aggression and to learn to work as a team."

Freshman Chris Boes wanted to play an aggressive school sport "probably to get some anger out." Good choice Chris!

J. V. Football

Coach Mallwitz started this season with two goals. First, to have more guys come out for the team. Second, for this year's team to have a better record than they did the year before as the freshmen team. The team accomplished both of these goals by doubling the amount of people on the team and the number of games won.

This year, with more players, the team had separate offensive and defensive squads. This strengthened the team and made it more competitive through the season.

During the year the team had excellent leadership from captains Vern Richardson, Jason Crisenbery, Jeff Harwood, and Brandon Lordy. Each had a positive attitude and always came out to play their hearts out and win every game. Although the season ended with a losing record, many of the players said this season was one of the greatest experiences in football. "We learned a lot from Coach Mal."

The Secret of Success

The Girls' Varsity Basketball Team has been a great success! And they spend a lot of time together. This team laughs together, plays together, eats together, and even raps together. Senior Angie Markel says, "The time we spend together helps on the court because we are close enough to read facial expressions, and know what is going through the others' minds."

One of the team's assets is their coach Fred Shaw. Coach Shaw sets goals and encourages the team to work harder. He teaches the benefits of working as a group. They experienced those benefits by winning the SCAL district and Regional Championships.

The team requested that this rap by Jen Liva be put in the yearbook:

The basketball season of this year,
Brought great hope and lots of cheer.
We worked real hard and improved our game,
So when we began we lit the flame.
We won the first and lost number two,

But our St. Clair Pride had shown right through.
The pre-season ended and we started the SCAL,
As we were tested we did not fail.
We passed so easily became the champs,
And on this school we left our stamp.
What a great season the memories shall never part

Changes

As difficult as it may sometimes seem, not all change is for the worst. In fact sometimes change can be great. This is the case with the Girls' J.V. Basketball team.

Last year, the girls learned what was referred to as the "new system". The new system was accepted with mixed feelings. Michelle Ladd said, "It was harder to learn because we had to relearn everything." Overall, it was also a good experience for the players because, as Kathy Hiller told us, "It (the system) helped us a lot to prepare for Varsity."

Some things about basketball never change though, and those things are having fun and good teamwork. The team recalls a few very humorous moments. Like Marleen Donahue making a basket for the opposite team; and while a team discussion was going on, Becky Borwick fell off the edge of the stage.

Humor didn't keep the team from being as strong as last year. Fellow players commented on Courtney Anderson being the most enthusiastic. She's known for giving a good pep talk now and then. Michelle Ladd was also noted for never letting a set back bring her down.

Most of the players are planning on joining the team again. Is another change in store for our J.V.? Maybe, but either way, we look forward to another great season.

MICHELLE Ladd pushes past.

New Coach, New Record

For their first year as being a part of the St. Clair High School sports group, the Freshman Basketball team and coach Eves proved to us that they have what it takes to play basketball at St. Clair High. The team had a great season with 20 wins and zero losses. For the first time coaching, Coach Eves was very pleased. He said, "The boys played well. They had control, and one important thing is that they played for themselves."

The boys who played also had some comments on how they played and about their coach. Team member Jay Seletsky said, "I thought Brian Eves was an excellent coach. He taught us discipline and how to work as a team. That is why we had such an awesome record." Bill Babel agreed with Jay about how excellent their coach was. Jeremy Donaldson stated, "I can't believe we did so well. I didn't expect it. Coach Eves is really cool." Lastly, Chris Tedrick said, "We had a good coach. He made it fun and lively. And I believe the season went great!"

The final thing the coach said was, "The main idea is to have fun and that's what my boys did. And I believe they will benefit Coach Monte's team very much in the near future."

Fun & Games

As all good things come to an end, so must the football career. For the team's seniors this is their last year of high school football. Although having to deal with a shortage of numbers and a disappointing win/loss record, the team's seniors didn't let their spirits get ruined and gave it their all throughout the season. "I knew this might be the last year I played football and I wanted to make the best of it," Captain Jim Schneider said. "We were all disappointed with our record," said Jay Hubbard, "but we played hard and had fun the whole season and isn't that the main point in playing in the first place." St. Clair went out this season with a positive attitude, won a few games, had fun, and made some great memories.

Hitting It Hard

Sitting on the sideline waiting for the next open court, you watch the ball go back and forth over the net. Watching and waiting until the coach yells for you to enter the court. You get up, walk over to the court and introduce yourself to your opponent, then the game begins. You remove your racket from its case. It's your serve. You throw the ball up into the air, "bang"; the ball goes over the net, its out of bounds. You have one more serve to get the ball in. Once again, you throw the ball up, "bang" you hit it, the ball is good and the match is on.

That's how it feels when you are one of the new girls on the team and your first time ever playing in a real match.

The new girls are not the only people on the team that feel this way, just about all of the girls feel this way. Coach Stablein helps the girls a lot. The girls feel that "he is not just a coach, he is a friend".

Just Another Athlete?

How do you feel people view hockey players? Maybe as frustrated and demented killers. Or, maybe just another athlete. Well, here's what a few of our hockey players had to say when asked that question.

Rob Trudeau: "As fighters, dumb people."

Don Fajardo: "As violent, not too smart and hyperactive."

Mike Koehn: "Like all they're out to do is fight."

Well, is it accurate?

Dave Demeulenaere: "It's only a stereotype."

Travis Kerbrat: "It's our business what we want to do on the ice."

What caused this reputation is probably the fighting and violence that sometimes occurs in the game. So why is there violence? Is it part of the game? Does the crowd expect it? Do the players like to get violent?

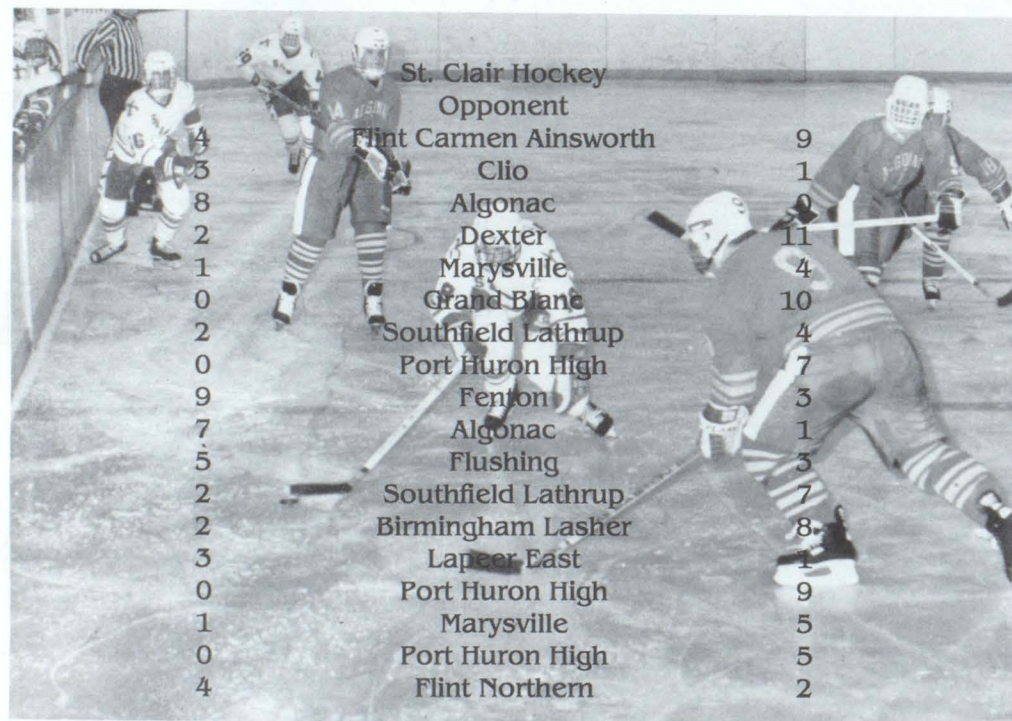

"I fight because it's fun and the crowd wants to see it happen.", said the fighter himself, Senior Jay Baysinger.

"You usually get violent because you get mad or ticked off at the other player," said Senior Scott Whittaker.

"People in my country believe it's real rough, but the way we play there is sweeter (nicer) than they play here. Here I always get hit," said Senior exchange student Antoine Bartcshi.

"In a hockey game it's expected. It is needed in the game; it's part of the game," said Junior Don Fajardo.

This year they've been trying to cut down on the fighting. "It's not the only thing we want people to go to the games for," said Junior Mike Koehn.

One Good Team

Crouched over on your block, you anxiously await the beginning of the race. BANG! The sound of a gun being fired rings in your ears as you jump from the starting block into a pool of warm chlorinated water. Hopefully you are the first to hit the water and you push to be the first to finish.

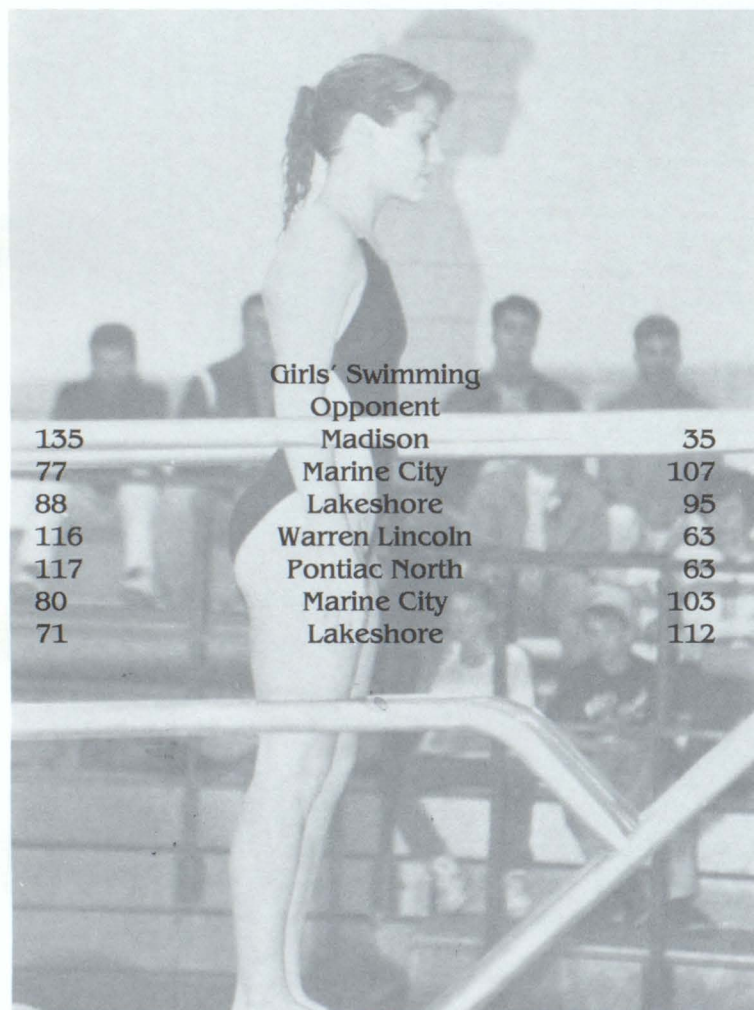

What goes on in a swimmer's mind while she is competing in an event? Senior Cathy Martinez wonders, "Where is everybody else in comparison to me? Am I gonna make it to the end?" Freshman Karen Fletcher feels "very nervous before a competition, because I'm afraid I might not do the best I can for my team. I want to do my best, so that I can be satisfied with my performance and make my team proud. Before a competition, I get a massive adrenaline rush just from thinking about it all!"

Competition is tough. In this area, a lot of the participating groups have excellent swimmers. St. Clair has been fortunate to have a swimming team that can compete well. Coach Carol Lucht keeps them working to their potential, pushing them to do things that surprises even them.

This year the swim team fought hard. They had an overall good season placing first in the S.C. Invitational. Most of them know being a swimmer is difficult. To be the best you can, you must practice for many long, hard hours. We're sure to see a good season next year too!

New Ways

Have you seen a difference between the style of our cheerleaders three years ago, and the style they are using today? Well, the change happened when the cheerleading squads started going to college cheerleading camps during the summer.

They learned new moves, how to stay more together, how to sound together, and stay on the same beat. They also learned that jumping up and down and all around does not make you a cheerleader. It takes long practices and hard work.

The cheerleaders don't like it when people say that cheerleading is not a sport. They practice just as long and just as hard as the team that they are cheering for. They also refer to themselves as a team not a squad.

The cheerleaders have changed a lot over the years and is becoming more of a challenging sport with all of the new moves, cheers, and ways to speak.

Our cheerleaders have proven that they can do it!

Getting To Know The Players

People screaming, cheerleaders cheering, people coming in endlessly, the stands are filling up quickly. Then the crowd settles as the Boys' Varsity Basketball team arrives on the court! Having a chance to interview the team members, the staff was able to find out why they love the sport so much and how they got "hooked".

How do you prepare yourself for a game both mentally and physically?

- "Drink grape juice, eat spaghetti and watch cartoons."

Mason Bowman

- "I have to give strong bench support, and I spend many hours contemplating what has to be done."

Harold Hahn

- "Have spaghetti before a game, it's a must."

Abe Leaver

- "Eat macaroni and cheese, and wear

my baseball hat."

Tom Berzonsky

What goals have you set for yourself this year?

- "To help the team win the league and district championship."

Todd Distelrath

- "I want to be a better defensive player and I want the team to be the best in the SCAL this year."

Jason Shafer

- "To become a strong, dominant team player."

Kris Paul

Who's your favorite basketball star and why?

- "Charles Barkley, because he redefines the word 'attitude'."

Kris Paul

- "Michael Jordan, because he makes things happen."

Jason Shafer

- "Stacey Augman (UNLV), because he plays good defense, a good leaper, and he's very graceful."

Darren Pietrykowski

How has being on the St. Clair basketball program changed your life?

- "Basketball, like other high school sports helps you learn responsibility, team work, and it helps you to make and achieve goals."

Todd Distelrath

- "I feel better about myself, more responsible, also like a role model to the younger players, it's a character builder."

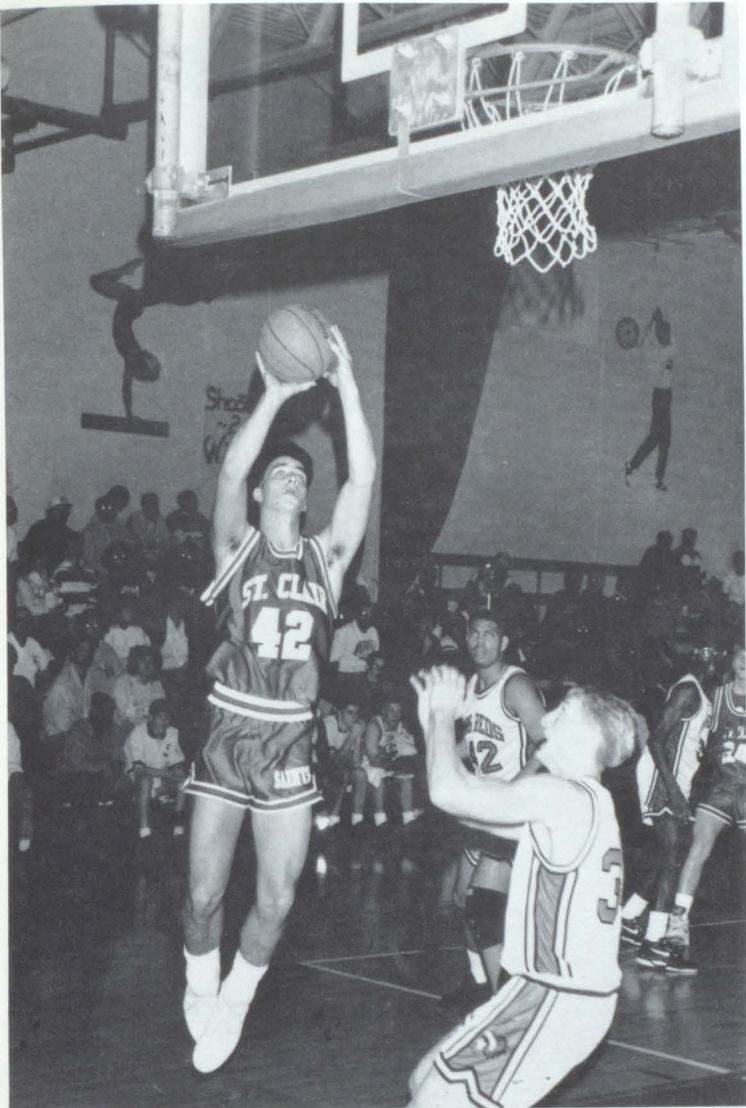

Darren Pietrykowski

- "I feel like a winner."

Kings of the Club

More than 16 million people play golf in the U.S. every year. "Golf is a game where most people don't start off with incredible scores, but if they put a lot of time and effort into it, their scores will steadily improve," states Senior Rob Lauderman.

"To sum up golf in one word? I'd have to say 'dedication.' To be a good golfer you have to spend a lot of time working on your game," comments Senior Steve Shaw. "We went into every match with a winning attitude because we knew we had what it took to come out on top.

"We were all friends and we had confidence in one another. It made the season a lot more fun," says Lauderman.

The Saints finished the season with a duel meet record of 15-1. S.C. won the SCAL crown by going 12-0 in league duel meets and placing first at the SCAL League Tournament. "It was the first time in the past seven years we went undefeated in the SCAL," said Coach Monte.

The Saints followed this with a runner up finish at the State Regionals and qualified for the State Finals for the second year in a row.

Varsity Volleyball

It was a year of changes for the Varsity Volleyball team. Fortunately all the changes were for the better and the team made great strides throughout the year.

The first change was a new coach, Suzie Delval. The team really liked her, she was quite knowledgeable in the sport. She developed team chemistry and skills throughout the year causing a vast amount of improvement from previous seasons.

This improvement led to the second change in the team. This year they made it to the SCAL Finals, and then to the District Finals by defeating Armada and Algonac. Unfortunately, the lost in the Finals to Marysville. On a positive note, the Varsity team moved further through the tournaments than even before, and ended the season at a tournament in Capac with a 3-3 split with Marysville.

The third change was a new team spirit and chemistry led by the new coach and veteran players that helped make the team more competitive. The girls were very supportive of each other and worked hard to win all year long. Senior players Therese Bonner, Wendy Carrier, Anita Goodsel, Jenny Liva, Becky Hayes, and Jenny Corby led the way throughout the season.

J.V. Volleyball

The J.V. Volleyball team had a very "fun and competitive" season according to Freshman Stephanie Devroy. They tried their best, but still were defeated by more than half of the teams that they played.

Sophomore Mary Linsday says the team worked hard together and tried their best. In Melissa Carver's words, "it was a great season."

Even Amy Seki comments that she met lots of new friends and she got to learn the basic volleyball skills. She also said she has never seen a coach as active as Coach Lynn Miotke.

Freshman Sarah Hansen believes that even though they had a terrible record, everybody had a lot of fun. The J.V. team improved tremendously throughout the year.

Victorious Season For Swimmers

Imagine swimming across Lake Superior. . .sounds impossible doesn't it?! If you are a member of the St. Clair Boys' Swim Team the idea isn't so strange. In one accumulative season, each individual swims the distance of this great lake.

Starting their season in early December, team members would practice an average of two — three hours every day, unless they had a meet. Meets averaged approximately two hours in length. "It's very time consuming, but the hard work paid off," commented one member. "We are good, because we practice to improve our skills and because we have determination."

The St. Clair Swimmers won every meet, placed third in relays and won the S.C.A.L. for the third year in a row!

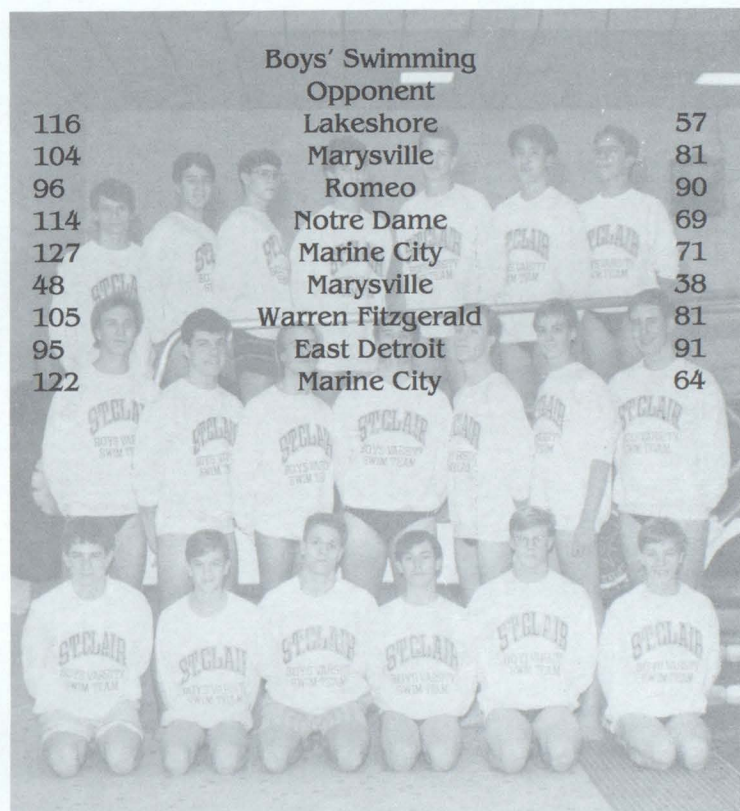

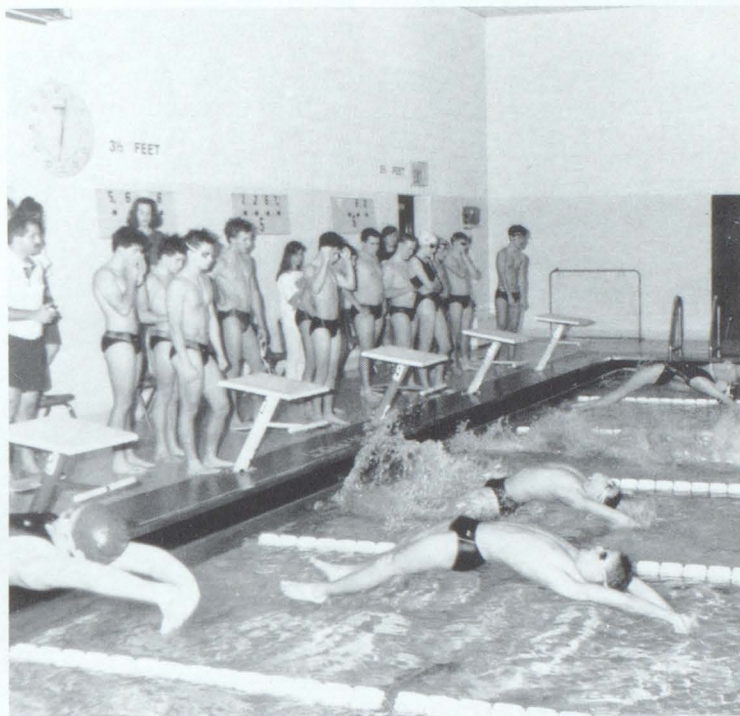

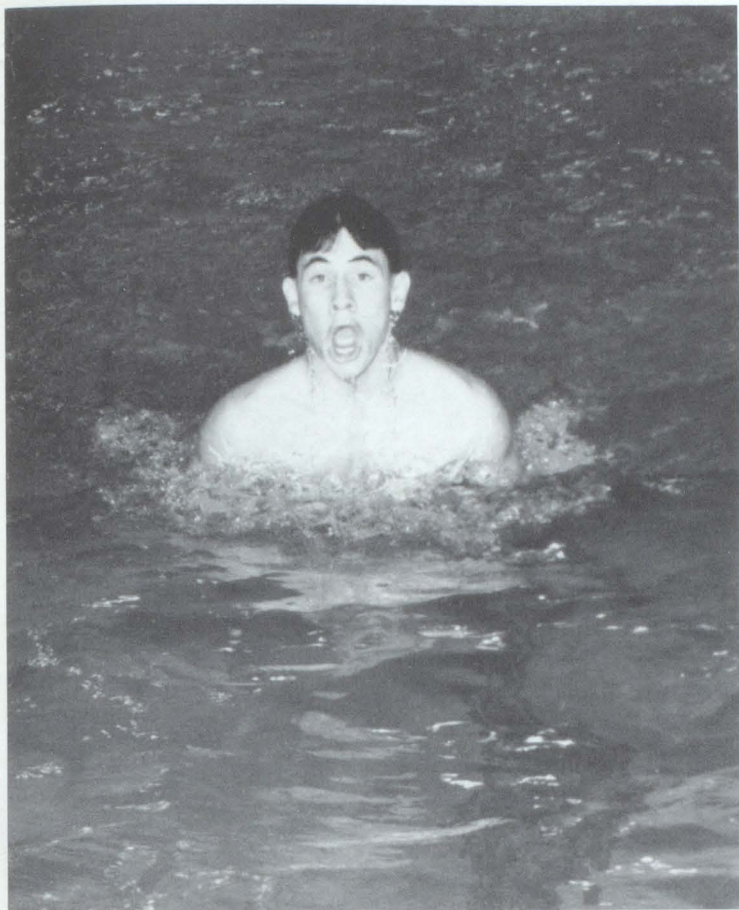

When asked about traditions, the team responded, "After every meet, we throw our coach into the pool!" It has also become tradition to spend time together outside of practice. "Sharing free time together helps us work better as a team," they explained. Teamwork and friendship paid off for the swimteam had a great year!

Winners At The Finish Line

On a Wednesday night in October, at the Elk's Club in Port Huron, the Saints began their peak week of the 1990 season. The coaches and team psyched themselves up for the most important race of the year. Coach Mareski was later to say, "The thing that made this team truly special was that it was more than a team, it was a family."

Once the race began it was a case of mind over body; after all this was THE CHAMPIONSHIP MEET. In the beginning it looked as if SC would be close, but Marysville and Algonac would probably take the top honors. Coach Mareski and Coach Kovach debated which would be better, a Viking victory or an Algonac sweep.

A couple of Marine City girl runners were the first to bring the news that SC may have won the championship. They figured that SC had a score of 68, Algonac had a 74, and Marysville was in between. It hit home for Coach Mareski when he totaled his team's score and found it to be 68 points and that SC was ahead of Marysville by three points. The question now was, what was Algonac's score? Once the Algonac coach turned in his score it was a sure thing, Algonac had indeed finished with a 74.

The pride in teamwork was obvious. They had been working hard the whole season for the goal they had just accomplished. As Tom Harman said, "It was like a dream, it was just incredible."

On the following Saturday morning, they received the runner-up trophy at the Port Huron Invitational by beating most of the SCAL teams, and some Class A schools. The season ended with the team being crowned OVER-ALL SCAL LEAGUE CHAMPS with their 5-1 second place duel meet finish and their first place SCAL championship meet title.

Personal record performances were achieved. Chris Cook had SCAL first team honors with a 3rd place finish. Tom Harman and Jody Shovan both just missed making the SCAL second team with 11th and 13th places. Tim Burns had an 18th place finish, and Jason Alban had a 23rd place finish. There were not enough girls out to form a girls team, but Freshman Nikki Cook and Sophomore Rose Cory competed individually in girls cross country events. Rose Cory came in 23rd at the SCAL meet and 63rd at State Regionals. Nikki Cook came in 6th at the SCAL meet, 13th at the State Regionals, and 40th at the State Cross Country Finals. The girls hope for more girls to join next year so they can compete as a team in their races.

Columbus or Bust

The Varsity Baseball team missed spring break this year. Instead, they piled into vans and cars and headed for Columbus, Ohio.

What is there to do in Ohio? Play ball of course! The St. Clair Varsity team, chaperoned by their coaches and several parents, made the trip to Ohio to play against other high school teams from across the U.S. as practice for the upcoming season.

The Columbus trip has become a tradition for the Varsity team. Team members agree it is beneficial as well as fun. Not all of their trip was spent playing baseball. Team members had time to relax, hang out at the pool, and play cards. They held an oreo-eating contest, had a cereal fight in one of their rooms (which cost Jeff Harwood $25 in cleaning fees!) and played lobbyball (basketball). Brian Mitchell spent his extra time "kicking Mr. Eberhard's butt playing raquetball!"

This all sounds like great fun guys, but what about Daytona? Didn't you miss it?

For Starters

Before any great major league baseball player flourishes in the big leagues, he has to develop his skills and work his way through the minor leagues. In relation to high school, before a player can flourish on the Varsity team, he has to develop his skills and work his way up through the J.V. team.

This is no easy task. It takes determination and dedication for a young J.V. player to make it to the Varsity level.

The team has to develop bonds and team chemistry. Keeping everyone's ego in check, but allowing everyone to express themselves.

Within the season the team had formed an incredible team chemistry. Vern Richardson led the team's offense by having the most runs and stealing the most bases. Ace pitcher Don Light highlighted a rock solid Saint's defense. They show that in the years to come, St. Clair will continue to have successful Varsity teams.

Scoring Grades and Points

You may think that academics has nothing to do with athletics, but at St. Clair High School, your grades mean a lot! In order to play a sport, such as J.V. Basketball, you must maintain a passing grade in every subject.

"J.V. Basketball played well this season, and did great academically," commented Coach Tom Stevenson.

"We only had one player ineligible for one week, and had three National Honor Society students on the team." Don Light, one of the J.V. teammates and also a National Honor Society member stated, "Your grades are important. When you are on a team, you have to be responsible. You have to show up for practice. This teaches you responsibility in academics." Alan Mitke, a teammate and another National Honor Society member, believes that "someone with good grades would be chosen to play over a person with bad grades."

To sum it all up, good grades really ARE a big part of participating in St. Clair High School athletics.

Practice Makes Perfect

We all know the feeling. The hollow, shrill ache that throbs in your stomach; the tightening of the muscles in your shoulders; the blanket of cotton that wraps itself around your tongue.

It's fear and anxiety. It overtakes many runners before every race, and arrives in double doses before a big meet. No matter how hard you practice, you still have these gut feelings.

Practice and preparation are the most important factors in becoming a good runner.

Practicing through the summer, such as running a couple miles a day, daily stretches, and keeping a good diet are all a part of bettering yourself for running.

As far as preparing goes, Jill Schwehofer takes first prize. She jogs two miles a day, stretches out, and eats a good carbohydrate meal.

Boys' Tennis

St. Clair entered the SCAL Tournament in second place in the league with a 9-3 record. All of their losses had been by one point, and two of their losses had been to duel meet champion Algonac. The Saints entered the league tournament wanting to prove how good of a team they were and wanting revenge.

What sweet revenge the SCAL Tournament was as the Saints' powerful doubles teams and deadly singles players dominated the court. In the singles competition: John Morgan won second singles, Dave McConnell won third singles, and James Go was fourth singles runner-up. In the doubles competition: Dave Demeulenaere and Jeremy Donaldson were second doubles; Tom McCabe and Mike Wangler won fourth doubles; and Jan Eberle and Bernie Kuhn were runners-up in third doubles. In the end, St. Clair had won by four points over Algonac, and stomped over the rest of the SCAL teams.

Forever Young

This year's prom was something very different for the juniors and the seniors. The two classes decided to combine their proms into one huge prom.

The theme of the evening was "Forever Young." To follow the theme, the cafeteria and the gym were decorated in a child-like form.

This year they did something different. They decided on having a Prom King and Queen. This was the first time every in SCHS history.

The seniors were video taped for part of their special video that they can get at the end of the year. This video was accompanied by the great music of "Fantasy."

Overall, the prom was a success. Everyone seemed to get along great and they seemed to be having a wonderful time.
